Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 8. JANESVILLE, WIS., TUESDAY, MAY 24, 1864. NUMBER 73.

THE NEWS.

Last Friday night and Saturday General Grant made one of those bold and successful movements which flanked the strongly fortified position that Lee occupied in the vicinity of Spotsylvania, and slipped by him on a bee line toward Richmond. The dispatches to-day state that the Army of the Potomac is only 38 miles from Richmond, and that the ground now occupied by Grant is favorable to fighting Lee if the latter wishes to offer battle which he will be most likely to do. Thus has the bold and cool-headed Grant by a skillfully executed movement, twice compelled Lee to abandon positions in which he has felt secure and either fight or run. If the two armies now try a race for the rebel capital, Grant is as near the goal as Lee. What has been so often stated in regard to reinforcements being sent to Grant, is now officially repeated by the Secretary of War. Grant has troops enough. Grant's late movements have been kept quiet for good and sufficient reasons, and the people ought to rejoice that the authorities have learned the art of war to that extent as to be able to keep important operations from the rebels at least.

We suspect, from the tenor of the dispatches received lately, that Butler is in a tight spot.

Gen. Sherman has pressed his advance as far as Cassville, seven miles south of Kingston. There has been heavy skirmishing, but no battle.

The details of European news by the Pacific seem to dispel the expectation of a peaceable solution of the Dane-Gorman question. The Peace Conference has proved a failure, and the English papers are grumbling against Napoleon as the cause of this, alleging that if he had taken a hearty interest in its deliberations, it would have been more successful.

The Pennsylvania Militia are shortly to be called to the field, and Governor Curtin has therefore issued a proclamation requesting all persons willing to enter the hundred days' service to form military organizations without delay.

General Sheridan is again with his gallant riders. Lee's rear will suffer.

The rebel papers admit a loss of 20,000 in the battles with Gen. Grant, and are silent about the prisoners. We captured 12,000 of the latter. Taking their own statement, therefore, and their loss would foot up 32,000. The truth, we presume, is not far from 40,000.

Senator Morgan has introduced a resolution to repeal the $300 exemption clause, which ought to be done at once.

Gov. Brough, of Ohio, tendered 30,000 one hundred day men to the Government, and in ten days 34,000 were furnished. They are not all Vallandighams and Sam Molarys in the gallant Buckeye State.

The Red River fleet has escaped. A dam was built at Alexandria which enabled the boats to pass down. Their progress was opposed by the rebels on the banks, but little damage was done.

Gen. Banks has evacuated Alexandria. The place was shortly afterward in flames; by whom set is not stated.

Old closed at 24.

When the World and Journal of Commerce published the bogus proclamation of the President, the Military authorities ordered the two offices closed until it could be known whether or not the editors of those papers were parties to the plot, to seriously embarrass the government in that manner. As soon as it was ascertained that the publishers of those papers were innocent of all such suspicions, they were allowed to go on with the publication of their papers as usual. But Governor Seymour, true to his devilish instincts, has ordered the arrest of two editors employed to close those offices, thus manifesting his willingness to bring on a collision between the State and National authorities, if possible. Governor Seymour is an able man, but if he is sincerely and truly in sympathy with the government in this struggle with the rebellion, his loyalty is about as heavy as the religious convictions of Judas Iscariot.

The Evening Post asserts that the Governor's "friends" are again meditating another riot to the end of diverting the attention of some of Grant's troops so that Lee may be bottled there. Gov. Seymour promises to be ready for them this time. He probably intends to make another speech to them.

Congress has given up all sort of business and is now devoting itself the art of billingsgate, if blackguards can be said to be an art. Last Thursday's session was devoted mainly to calling each other liars, cowards and other opprobrious epithets. While the people might fully and entirely acquiesce in the meanest things these fellows can say of each other, still they beseech them, in the name of God and our poor, bleeding and suffering country to do their work and go home. Men who have not pluck enough to tax a gallon of whiskey, or expell a rebel-minded traitor from their midst, need not be expected to accomplish any good for the country at large.

Says the New York Herald. "What indecent has the rebel soldier to continue the war, when his pay in rebel scrip for a whole year will not furnish his wife a calico gown, or his famishing children a week's subsistence."

Rev. Lewis L. Matson commenced his labors as pastor of the Congregational church in Madison on Sunday last.

STATE NEWS.

The Green Bay Advocate says three or four leading Belgians from that vicinity have gone to France and Belgium for the purpose of inducing the emigration of their countrymen to the United States. The Hudson North Star says there are millions of pigeons thereabouts, and sporting characters are harvesting them in large numbers. A great many logs are coming down. The Polk county Press, of the 14, says the drought in that part of the State continues. It is over a year since a good soaking rain has fallen there. It is understood that E. M. Randall, Esq., of Waukesha, will be appointed tax commissioner for Florida in the place of Judge Potter, declined. The Hudson North Star says: The returns from the Lake counties about Solon H. Clough, as Judge of the 11th circuit over Henry D. Barron, by 50 majority. The citizens of La Crosse held a meeting on the 14th and passed eloquent and expressive resolutions upon the death of Col. Boardman, who was a resident of that city. The Appleton Crescent speaks of Chicago as a place "where summer's heat doth cause vile scents to rankle high, and where speculation's wild in high-wines." The Grand Rapids Pilot says that very many of the old residents there are going to California or Idaho; also that the marshes and timber adjoining that town have been on fire for several days. The Racine Journal says that G. S. Rand of Manitowoc, during the past three seasons, has built three of the largest vessels afloat—the Nabob, the Board of Trade and the Nashoto. Mrs. Mary Reilly is accused of throwing vitriol upon Mrs. Muth of Burlington, Racine county, and has been arrested. The Broadhead Independent speaks in glowing terms of the neat and tidy manner in which the people of that genial village keep their churches and grounds.

Praying in Congress.

We recently published a brief notice of Rev. Dr. Sutherland, Chaplain of the Senate, praying that Congress might have a more liberal installment of brains; whereas, an Episcopal paper gives the Doctor a turn in this wise:

"When extempore prayer, as its highest development, comes to be cracking jokes with one's maker—when, under the chaplaincy of a highly 'Evangelical' Doctor of Divinity, in the Senate of the nation, that is what it amounts to—we may well thank God for the book of common Prayer; while, at the same time, in the words of that book, we supplicate him for a congress which, in the Lord's dire extremity, his poor witicism offered to the Almighty instead of prayers, and petitions whose fit responses are only 'broad grins.'"

Good Templars.—The Right Grand Lodge of North America of this organization meets in Cleveland to-day.

The delegates from the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin are Hon. H. H. Giles, of Stoughton, Rev. Mr. Thayer, of River Falls and Mrs. A. M. Thompson, of Janesville.

Hon. S. D. Hastings, of Madison, is the Right Grand Worthy Chief Templar, which is the highest office within the gift of this Order.

By evidence which the bitterest rebel cannot dispute, an official return of a Richmond hospital, the brutal treatment of our prisoners in that city is proved. During the first three months of the present year fifty per cent. of the prisoners in that hospital died, and their deaths were from diseases which starvation invariably produces.

The Republican Union State Convention of Vermont has made the following nominations for State officers: For Governor, Hon. J. G. Smith; for Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. P. Dillingham; for Treasurer, Hon. J. B. Page. Delegates at large to Baltimore were chosen. President Lincoln's re-nomination was recommended.

Mr. Cyrus W. Field, who arrived in New York by the Pacific received at Queenstown a telegraphic dispatch, dated at Irkutsk, Siberia, on Sunday, May 8, at 8:10 A. M., at ten minutes past ten o'clock the same morning, although the distance from Irkutsk to Queenstown is over six thousand five hundred miles.

The Governor is waiting for advice from Surgeon General Volcott, now with the Army of the Potomac, as to the time when volunteer surgeons will be needed. Surgeons who can go should report to the Governor and hold themselves in readiness.

Rev. L. B. Mason, who left this State as chaplain of the 12th regiment, died yesterday at his home in Madison. He was a man of great intellectual capacity, an excellent speaker, and a sincere and devoted Christian.

Rev. Dr. Hawks has temporarily left Baltimore because, it is supposed, he was invited to give an account of his stewardship to the military authorities.

The Boston Journal tells this story: Last week a person from Baltimore, temporarily residing in this city, invited five friends to dinner at the house of a female relation. On going to the dinner table the party found the rebel flag topping a piece of ornamental pastry, in the center of the festive board. The insult was noticed before the guests were seated, and, as it appeared, by all of them nearly at the same moment. Not a word was spoken, but every man left as by a mutual impulse, and the Baltimore secessionist had leave to dine alone. Next morning he was visited upon for an explanation of his misconduct, but his discretion prompted him to take the first westward train for home.

FRESH VEGETABLES.—The little woman just below the post office keeps the nicest of asparagus and other vegetables—and they are all for sale.

MORRIS' MINISTRIES.—A good house greeted this company last evening at Lapin's Hall, and we have no doubt there will be a larger attendance to-night.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be a Special meeting of Washington Engine Co. No. 3 to-morrow, (Wednesday) evening, for the transaction of important business. GEO. BODLE, Foreman.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court was occupied during yesterday afternoon and late to-day in the consideration of the case of Evan W. Thomas vs. Chas. Terwilliger, which was an action to recover the wages of the plaintiff for services rendered defendant on his farm. The case was given to the jury about 4 o'clock. Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs for plaintiff; Chas. G. Williams for defendant.

THE DEATH OF MR. VINEY.—A day or two since we made mention of the accidental death of Mr. Win. Viney, but Mr. G. W. Fold, of Edgerton, sends us the following particulars of the accident:

Mr. Viney had started from his home in Porter, to go to Evansville with a load of grain, and while passing through the village of Union, he was thrown from his load, falling under one of the wheels of his wagon, which passed over the lower part of his face and then across his left temple, killing him instantly. Both jaws were crushed and his face was horribly mutilated. The deceased leaves a wife and large family. He was about 60 years of age.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP'S FAREWELL.—This lady is not only known from her world-wide reputation as a Cantatrice, but as one of the most distinguished Luiguitas and Traverses. She has been entirely around the Globe and sung almost every language. On Wednesday evening she will give her Farewell Concert in this city, and after a brief tour through the North-West, will leave the scene of her vocal Triumphs, and "be heard no more."

At the present moment she has no equal in the Concert room, and the feeling and pathos imparted by her to many of the most beautiful ballads, will ever be remembered by those who have heard her.

Accompanying her, is her lovely and talented Daughter, Miss Louisa Bishop, who, having studied in the best schools of Europe, under the great Master of the "Art Divine," is now distinguishing herself as Vocalist and Pianist. Mr. A. Sedgwick will give variety to the entertainment by the introduction of his famous English Concertina, and some amusing Buffo Songs. Tickets and seats can be secured in advance at the Jewelry store of J. A. Webb & Co. Get them in time.

A DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.—On Saturday evening last, a disgraceful affair occurred in this city, which resulted in the serious maiming of a man named Chas. Wayne, the clerk of the American House. As near as we have been able to ascertain the circumstances, several persons got into a quarrel with Wayne at the depot, because the bus for the American brought guests to that house free, while two shillings were charged by the other drivers, for similar services. Nothing serious grew out of the matter until late in the evening, when the drivers and their friends repaired to the American House, and having surrounded it, three of them entered the office, and made an assault upon Wayne, beating him in an unmerciful manner. Knocking two front teeth out, and otherwise maltreating him. The names of the parties arrested are Oliver Thompson, Alvin Russell, Chas. Ward, Bernard Nash, Marilla Riker, Wm. Thurston, Thos. Barson and Mack Eddy. The offense these men have been charged with is a very serious one, and if guilty, they should be made to feel the full severity of the law, for the sooner men learn that brute force is not the method of settling such difficulties the better it will be for the community as well as themselves.

MIDNIGHT ATTACK ON BUTLER!

The Rebels get Punished!

GRANT'S FLANK MOVEMENT!!

Our Army Gone from Spotsylvania!

Only 38 Miles from Richmond!

FROM GENERAL BUTLER.

New York, May 24.—Herald's correspondent with General Butler, May 22nd, gives an account of the midnight assault by the rebels on the night previous. Our pickets received their fire firmly and gradually fell back when the artillery opened upon the advancing rebels with withering discharges of grape and canister. Siege guns and light batteries were brought to bear on the rebels, which moved them down like grass. They still advanced receiving another slaughtering discharge, when they halted, and a rebel caisson exploded, scattering death in all directions.

The gunboats on the Appomattox joined in shelling the woods where the rebel reserves were stationed, and the rebels finding our forces so well prepared to receive them withdrew, leaving their dead, numbering 204, on the field.

Our defenses are considered by some of our best engineers almost impregnable.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

New York, May 24.—Special to Times, Guinea Station 21.—The Army of the Potomac is again on the march towards Richmond. During the night Hancock's corps which held the left of our lines in front of Spotsylvania Court House, took up their line of march this morning on a road parallel with the Ny river. Early this morning they reached Guinea Station, on the Fredericksburg and Richmond Railroad, 12 miles due south from Fredericksburg, thence pushed onward, following the railroad, and to-night finds the headquarters of Hancock's column at Bowling Green, 18 miles south of Fredericksburg.

The other corps have been to-day following the same general line, and are now passing the point where this dispatch is dated. You will observe from these indications that the commanding General has effected the turning movement on the right flank of Lee's army, who has now hastily fallen back to take up a new defensive position. It is expected his next stand will be on the South Anna River, although he may endeavor to hit us while moving by flank against us, as he did when outflanked in his lines on the Rapidan. Heavy firing in fact this moment is heard across the Ny river.

Guinea Station is a point near the confluence of the Po and Ny rivers, and at this point the stream is crossed by Guinea bridge, which is in our possession.

Our army has now all gone from the front it has held before Spotsylvania for the past two weeks. Our present front, which is in a very advantageous position, covers our communications, which are via Fredericksburg. The railroad will soon be all right from Aquia Creek to Fredericksburg, and it will doubtless be put in order south of that point as we advance.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS

FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next,

in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, the following described lands, to-wit:

Eight hundred and thirty (830) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Fortville, with the Detroit & Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and no company could own a more valuable tract of land.

They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands in all respects in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in four parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which may be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, excepting that part which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two hundred and twenty (220) acres of prime land in Marathon county, near the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago.

A more eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable lands, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 10th street, New York, who will sell Janesville ten days before the sale takes place; to J. R. Pease, Esq., counselor at law, Janesville; or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Fortville.

JANESVILLE, WIS., TUESDAY, MAY 24, 1864.

NUMBER 73.

THE NEWS.

Last Friday night and Saturday General Grant made one of those bold and successful movements which flanked the strongly fortified position that Lee occupied in the vicinity of Spotsylvania, and slipped by him on a bee line toward Richmond. The dispatches to-day state that the Army of the Potomac is only 38 miles from Richmond, and that the ground now occupied by Grant is favorable to fighting Lee if the latter wishes to offer battle which he will most likely to do. Thus has the hold and cool-headed Grant by a skillfully executed movement, twice compelled Lee to abandon positions in which he has felt secure and either fight or run. If the two armies now try a race for the rebel capital, Grant is as near the goal as Lee.

What has been so often stated in regard to reinforcements being sent to Grant, is now officially repeated by the Secretary of War. Grant has troops enough. Grant's late movements have been kept quiet for good and sufficient reasons, and the people ought to rejoice that the authorities have learned the art of war to that extent as to be able to keep important operations from the rebels at least.

We suspect, from the tenor of the dispatches received lately, that Butler is in a tight spot.

Gen. Sherman has pressed his advance as far as Cassville, seven miles south of Kingston. There has been heavy skirmishing, but no battle.

The details of European news by the Forsyth seem to dispel the expectation of a peaceable solution of the Danco-German question. The Peace Conference has proved a failure, and the English papers are grumbling against Napoleon as the cause of this, alleging that if he had taken a heavy interest in its deliberations, it would have been more successful.

The Pennsylvania Militia are shortly to be called to the field, and Governor Curtin has therefore issued a proclamation requesting all persons willing to enter the hundred days' service to form military organizations without delay.

General Sheridan is off again with his gallant riders. Lee's rear will suffer.

The rebel papers admit a loss of 20,000 in the battles with Gen. Grant, and are silent about the prisoners. We captured 12,000 of the latter. Taking their own statement, therefore, and their loss would foot up 32,000. The truth, we presume, is not far from 40,000.

Senator Morgan has introduced a resolution to repeal the $300 exemption clause, which ought to be done at once.

Gov. Brough, of Ohio, tendered 30,000 one hundred day men to the Government, and in ten days 34,000 were furnished. They are not all Vallandigham and Sam McDermis in the gallant Buckeye State.

The Red River fleet has escaped. A dam was built at Alexandria which enabled the boats to pass down. Their progress was opposed by the rebels on the banks, but little damage was done.

Gen. Banks has evacuated Alexandria. The place was shortly afterwards in flames; by whom set is not stated.

Gen. closed at 84.

When the World and Journal of Commerce published the bogus proclamation of the President, the Military authorities ordered the two offices closed until it could be known whether or not the editors of those papers were parties to the plot, to seriously embarrass the government in that manner. As soon as it was ascertained that the publishers of those papers were innocent of all such suspicions, they were allowed to go on with the publication of their papers as usual. But Governor Seymour, true to his devilish instincts, has ordered the arrest of the soldiers employed to close those offices, thus manifesting his willingness to bring on a collision between the State and National authorities, if possible. Governor Seymour is an able man, but if he is sincerely and truly in sympathy with the government in this struggle with the rebellion, he has a mighty poor way of showing it. His loyalty is about as hearty as the religious convictions of Judas Iscariot.

The Evening Post asserts that the Governor's "friends" are again meditating another riot to the end of diverting the attention of some of Grant's troops so that Lee may be benefitted thereby. Gov. Seymour promises to be ready for them this time. He probably intends to make another speech to them.

Congress has given up all sort of business and is now devoting itself the art of billingsgate, if blackguardism can be said to be an art. Last Thursday's session was devoted mainly to calling each other liars, cowards and other opprobrious epithets. While the people might fully and entirely acquiesce in the meanest things those fellows can say of each other, still they beseech them, in the name of God and our poor, bleeding and suffering country to do their work and go home. Men who have at hand enough to tax a gallon of whiskey, or expell a red-mantled traitor from their midst, need not be expected to accomplish any good for the country at large.

Says the New York Herald:—"What inducement has the rebel soldier to continue the war, when his pay in rebel scrip for a whole year will not furnish his wife a calico gown, or his famishing children a week's subsistence."

Rev. Lewis E. Mason commenced his labors as pastor of the Congregational church in Madison on Sunday last.

STATE NEWS.

The Green Bay Advocate says three or four leading Belgians from that vicinity have gone to France and Belgium for the purpose of inducing the emigration of their countrymen to the United States. The Hudson North Star says there are millions of pigeons thereabouts, and sporting characters are harvesting them in large numbers. A great many logs are coming down. The Polk County Press, of the 14, says the drought in that part of the State continues. It is over a year since a good soaking rain has fallen there. It is understood that E. M. Randall, Esq., of Waukesha, will be appointed tax commissioner for Florida in the place of Judge Potter, deceased. The Hudson North Star says: The returns from the Lake counties elect Solon H. Clough, as Judge of the 11th circuit over Henry D. Barnard, by 50 majority. The citizens of La Crosse held a meeting on the 14th and passed eloquent and expressive resolutions upon the death of Col. Boardman, who was a resident of that city. The Appleton Crescent speaks of Chicago as a place "where summer's heat doth cause vile scents to rankle high, and where speculation's wild in high-windings." The Grand Rapids Pilot says that very many of the old residents there are going to California or Idaho; also that the marshes and timber adjoining that town have been on fire for several days. The Racine Journal says that G. S. Rand of Manitowec, during the past three seasons, has built three of the largest vessels afloat—the Nabob, the Board of Trade and the Nashoto. Mrs. Mary Reilly is accused of throwing vitriol upon Mrs. Math of Burlington, Racine county, and has been arrested. The Broadhead Independent speaks in glowing terms of the neat and tidy manner in which the people of that genial village keep their churches and grounds.

Praying in Congress.

We recently published a brief notice of Rev. Dr. Sutherland, Chaplain of the Senate, praying that Congress might have a more liberal installment of brains; whereat an Episcopal paper gives the Doctor a turn in this wise:

"When extempore prayer, as its highest development, comes to be cracking jokes with one's maker—when, under the chaplaincy of a highly 'Evangelical' Doctor of Divinity, in the Senate of the nation, that is what amounts to—'we may well thank God for the lack of common Prayer' while, at the same time, in the words of that book, we supplicate him for congress which, in the Lord's dire extremity, has poor witicism offered to the Almighty instead of prayers, and petitions whose fit responses are only 'broad grins.'"

Good TEMPLARS.—The Right Grand Lodge of North America of this organization meets in Cleveland to-day. The delegates from the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin are H. H. Giles, of Stoughton, Rev. Mr. Thayer, of River Falls and Mrs. A. M. Thomson, of Jamesville.

Hon. S. D. Hastings, of Madison, is the Right Grand Worthy Chief Templar, which is the highest office within the gift of this Order.

By EVIDENCE which the bitterest rebel cannot dispute, an official return of a Richmond hospital, the brutal treatment of our prisoners in that city is proved. During the first three months of the present year fifty per cent. of the prisoners in that hospital died, and their deaths were from diseases which starvation invariably produces.

The Republican Union State Convention of Vermont has made the following nominations for State officers: For Governor, Hon. J. G. Smith; for Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. P. Dillingham; for Treasurer, Hon. J. B. Page. Delegates at large to Baltimore were chosen. President Lincoln's renomination was recommended.

Mr. Cyrus W. Field, who arrived in New York by the Pacific received at Queenstown a telegraphic dispatch, dated at Irkutsk, Siberia, on Sunday, May 8, at 8:10 A. M., at ten minutes past ten o'clock the same morning, although the distance from Irkutsk to Queenstown is over six thousand five hundred miles.

The Governor is waiting for advice from Surgeon General Volcott, now with the Army of the Potomac, as to the time when volunteer surgeons will be needed. Surgeons who can go should report to the Governor and hold themselves in readiness.

Rev. L. B. Mason, who left this State as chaplain of the 12th regiment, died yesterday at his home in Madison. He was a man of great intellectual capacity, an excellent speaker, and a sincere and devoted Christian.

Rev. Dr. Hawks has temporarily left Baltimore because, it is supposed, he was invited to give an account of his stewardship to the military authorities.

The Boston Journal tells this story: Last week a person from Baltimore, temporarily residing in this city, invited five friends to dinner at the house of a female relation. On going to the dinner table the party found the rebel flag topping a piece of ornamental pastry, in the center of the festive board. The insult was noticed by the guests were seated, and, as it appeared, by all of them nearly at the same moment. Not a word was spoken, but every man felt as by a mutual impulse, and the Baltimore secessionist had leave to dine alone. Next morning he was waiting upon for an explanation of his conduct, but his discretion prompted him to take the first westward train for home.

FRESH VEGETABLES.—The little woman just below the post office keeps the nicest of asparagus and other vegetables—and they are all for sale.

MOURNERS' MINSTRELS.—A good house greeted this company last evening at Lappin's Hall, and we have no doubt there will be a larger attendance to-night.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be a Special meeting of Washington Engine Co. No. 3 to-morrow, (Wednesday) evening, for the transaction of important business. GEO. BOOLE, Foreman.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court was occupied during yesterday afternoon and late to-day in the consideration of the case of Evan W. Thomas vs. Chas. Terwilliger, which was an action to recover the wages of the plaintiff for services rendered defendant on his farm. The case was given to the jury about 4 o'clock. Bennett, Cassway & Gibbs for plaintiff; Chas. G. Williams for defendant.

THE DEATH OF MR. VINEY.—A day or two since we made mention of the accidental death of Mr. Wm. Viney, but Mr. W. F. Old, of Edgerton, sends us the following particulars of the accident: Mr. Viney had started from his home in Porter, to go to Evansville with a load of grain, and while passing through the village of Union, he was thrown from his load, falling under one of the wheels of his wagon, which passed over the lower part of his face and then across his left temple, killing him instantly. Both jaws were crushed and his face was horribly mutilated. The deceased leaves a wife and large family. He was about 60 years of age.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP'S FAREWELL.—This lady is not only known from her world-wide reputation as a Cantatrice, but as one of the most distinguished Linguists and Travelers. She has been entirely around the Globe and sung in almost every language. On Wednesday evening she will give her Farewell Concert in this city, and after a brief tour through the North-West, will leave the scene of her vocal triumphs, and "be heard no more." At the present moment she has no equal in the Concert room, and the feeling and pathos imparted by her to many of the most beautiful ballads, will ever be remembered by those who have heard her. Accompanying her, is her lovely and talented daughter, Miss Louisa Bishop, who, having studied in the best schools of Europe, under the great Master of the "Art Divine," is now distinguishing herself as Vocalist and Pianist. Mr. A. Sedgwick will give variety to the entertainment by the introduction of his famous English Concertina, and some amusing Buffalo Songs. Tickets and seats can be secured in advance at the Jewelry store of J. A. Webb & Co. Get them in time.

A DISCREPANCY AFFAIR.—On Saturday evening last, a disgraceful affair occurred in this city, which resulted in the serious maiming of a man named Chas. Wayne, the clerk of the American House. As near as we have been able to ascertain the circumstances, several persons got into a quarrel with Wayne at the depot, because the bus for the American brought guests to that house free, while two shillings were charged by the other drivers, for similar services. Nothing serious grew out of the matter until late in the evening, when the drivers and their friends repaired to the American House, and having surrounded it, three of them entered the office, and made an assault upon Wayne, beating him in an unmerciful manner. Knocking two front teeth out, and otherwise maltreating him. The names of the parties arrested are Oliver Thompson, Alva Russell, Chas. Ward, Bernard Nash, Marcell Riker, Wm. Thurston, Thos. Barson and Mack Eddy. The offense these men have been charged with is a very serious one, and if guilty, they should be made to feel the full severity of the law, for the sooner men learn that brute force is not the method of settling such difficulties the better it will be for the community as well as themselves.

VISIT OF JAMESVILLE TEACHERS.—The lady teachers returned the visit of the teachers of this city yesterday, and in the evening were entertained at the house of acting Mayor J. H. Carpenter, where the visitors of the city teachers, Messrs. Welch and Pickarts of the board of education, and a very sociable company were assembled. This morning the visitors were taken about the city by their hosts, visiting prominent points from which views of the lakes could be seen, the State Capitol, Historical Socy's rooms and other institutions of interest. The lady teachers of Jamesville made their visit at a good time, as they were enabled to see the teachers of Jamesville who had enlisted, go into camp as gallant one hundred day volunteers, and also many of their spirited and patriotic students. The amiable and intelligent teachers of Jamesville will be pleasantly remembered by those who were so fortunate as to enjoy their society while here.—Madison Journal.

A Letter from the 2d Wisconsin in the La Crosse Republican says: "On the 11th inst., the day after the death of Captain Hughes, our regiment was detailed for division provost guard, so that while this campaign lasts we will not participate actively in any more engagements. Capt. Hughes was killed by a mischievous ball through the head."

INSURE WITH THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF WISCONSIN.—It is the BEST COMPANY FOR WESTERN MEN!—The reasons why this is the best Company, are: That it is a Western Company, made up of and managed by Western men, doing all or nearly all its business in the Northwest, and concentrating in this one Company a superior class of risks, mostly of young men, or men in the prime of life, and they selected with as great care in regard to eligibility to Life Insurance, as are the risks of any other company.

It is true that the Company has neither the age nor the accumulations of some eastern companies, but is gaining the latter very fast; is vigorous for one of its age; is doing a large business, having issued 637 policies in the months of December and January just passed, and is doing its business as economically as the same can be done anywhere. It has for its guide, the experience of all older companies, and among its managers some of the best business men in the northwest.

This is the first successful effort ever made to build up a similar institution in the West, and it should be the pride, as it certainly is the interest, of every business man in this section of the State, to identify himself with its growth.

This Company issues non-forfeiting policies, upon which premiums are paid in five or ten annual payments. These non-forfeiting policies are very desirable, as they guarantee to the policy holder the benefit of all the money that he pays into the Company, and also enable him to pay his premiums for the whole of life while he is young, or at an early period, thus relieving him from the burden of payment in old age. Insurance upon this plan, (as well as on all other policies that this Company issues) become due and payable at death, should death occur before the ten years expire.

It also issues the endowment policy which becomes due and payable to the party assured at a stated age specified. These latter policies are becoming quite popular, and are particularly desirable for young men.

MIDNIGHT ATTACK ON BUTLER!

The Rebels get Punished!

GRANT'S FLANK MOVEMENT!!

Our Army Gone from Spotsylvania!

Only 38 Miles from Richmond!

FROM GENERAL BUTLER.

New York, May 24.—Herald's May 22nd, gives an account of the midnight assault by the rebels on the night previous. Our pickets received their fire bravely and gradually fell back when the artillery opened upon the advancing rebels with withering discharges of grape and canister. Siege guns and light batteries were brought to bear on the rebels, which moved them down like grass. They still advanced receiving another slaughtering discharge, when they halted, and a rebel caisson exploded, scattering death in all directions. The gunboats on the Appomattox joined in shelling the woods where the rebel reserves were stationed, and the rebels finding our forces so well prepared to receive them withdrew, leaving their dead, numbering 204, on the field.

Our defenses are considered by some of our best engineers almost impregnable.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

New York, May 24.—Special to Times, Guinea Station 21.—The Army of the Potomac is again on the march towards Richmond. During the night Hancock's corps which had held the left of our lines in front of Spotsylvania Court House, took up their line of march this morning on a road parallel with the Ny river. Early this morning they reached Guinea Station, on the Fredericksburg and Richmond Railroad, 12 miles due south from Fredericksburg, thence pushed onward, following the railroad, and to-night finds the headquarters of Hancock's column at Bowling Green, 18 miles south of Fredericksburg.

The other corps have been to-day following the same general line, and are now passing the point where this dispatch is dated. You will observe from these indications that the commanding General has effected the turning movement on the right flank of Lee's army, who has now hastily fallen back to take up a new defensive position. It is expected his next stand will be on the South Anna River, although he may endeavor to hit us while moving by flank against us, as he did when outflanked in his lines on the Rapidan. Heavy firing in fact this moment is heard across the Ny river.

Guinea Station is a point near the confluence of the Po and Ny rivers, and at this point the stream is crossed by Guinea bridge, which is in our possession.

Our army has now all gone from the front it has held before Spotsylvania for the past two weeks. Our present front, which is in a very advantageous position, covers our communications, which are via Fredericksburg. The railroad will soon be all right from Aquia Creek to Fredericksburg, and it will doubtless be put in order south of that point as we advance.

ROCK CO., WISCONSIN, LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

Will be sold by auction, on

Thursday the 23d of June Next, in the city of Jamesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-eight hundred and forty (3840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Fortville, with the Light & Madison Railroad passing through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad near their border and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present use as for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best land in all respects, in Rock county, and this country, the best known, is the prairie of Wisconsin. They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty-five per cent. cash, which may be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent. interest, for seven or ten years, according to the terms which will be sold for cash, time and place. There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty-two in all (2200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the town of Jackson, selected about eight years ago.

A most eligible opportunity for farmers to secure most desirable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be afforded.

For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. Dawson, No. 9 East 15th street, New York, and will be furnished. Two days before the sale take place, to J. F. Poole, Esq., counselor at law, Jamesville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Rockville.

ENLIST! ENLIST!

ONE HUNDRED DAYS!

The undersigned having been appointed by the Governor of Wisconsin to recruit and outfit volunteers for the one hundred day United States service, may be found at the

in this city, where he will be prepared to receive the names of all patriotic citizens who may wish to enter this particular branch of the service.

ABOUT A NEW CALL FOR $300,000!

THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

Favorable News from Red River!

How the Gunboats Escaped!

REINFORCEMENTS FOR GRANT!

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, May 24.—Times Washington special says the Senate Military Committee is considering a proposition to allow the President to call out volunteers for less than 3 years, also to repeal the $300 exemption clause. In the District Supreme court to-day a case was decided that gold speculations are contrary to public policy, and that a plaintiff can neither recover on profits made of former deposits in the hands of defendants, on monies deposited with them as margin or as collateral under contracts for the purchase of goods.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, May 24.—The cargo of coal donated to the Sanitary Fair by Geo. Elliott, of England, sold to-day for $135,000. It is reported that the gun boat of the Potomac flotilla have removed all the obstructions in the Rappahannock. Nothing from Grant.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 23.—To Major General Dix: Dispatches from Major General Canby, dated Mouth of Red River, midnight, May 15th, state that Admiral Porter has just arrived. The remainder of the gunboats will arrive to-night. Gen. Banks will probably reach Simmsport on the Atchafalaya to-morrow.

A dispatch from Admiral Porter, dated on board the flag ship Black Hawk, mouth of Red River, May 16th, states that a portion of the squadron above the falls at Alexandria have been released from their unpleasant position, owing to the indefatigable exertions of Lieut. Col. Bailey, Acting Engineer of the 19th Army corps, who proposed and built a tree dam of 500 feet across the river at the lower falls, which enabled all the vessels to pass in safety, the back water in the river reaching Alexandria, and allowed them all to pass over the shoals and obstructions planted by the enemy to a point of safety. Lieutenant-Colonel Bailey will be immediately nominated for promotion for distinguished and meritorious services.

An official report from Cairo, dated May 22, states that the army and gunboats were all safe at the mouth of Red River and Simmsport.

Maj. Gen. Sherman, by a dispatch dated 8:30 P. M. last night, reports that he would be ready by this morning to resume his operations. Returned veterans and regiments, he says, have more than replaced all losses and detachments. We have no official reports since my last telegram from Gen. Grant or Butler. Official reports of this Department show that within eight days after the great battle of Spotsylvania Court House, many thousand veteran troops have been forwarded to Gen. Grant. The whole army has been amply supplied with full rations of subsistence.

Several thousand reinforcements have also been forwarded to other armies in the field, and ample supplies for all.

During the same time over 30,000 volunteers for one hundred days have been mustered into the service, clothed, armed, equipped and transported to their respective positions.

This statement is due to the chiefs of the army, staff and bureau, and their respective corps to whom the credit belongs. (Signed) E. M. STANTON.

THE WOUNDED AT FREDERICKSBURG.

Interesting Incidents.

(Correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune.)

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Sunday Morning, May 15th, 1864.—It is in harmony with God's laws that this family of mariners, dwelling against the side of the mansion opposite my window, should make this Sabbath morning noisy with operatic song and bird-talk and should flutter homeward and away from home on short journeys on pleasure, with infinite variety of love talk to each other, and very capers of song if the air as they come and as they go—that these mariners should do this, and that, at the same time, ambulances, whose beginning I cannot see and whose end I cannot measure, should fill the streets beneath the joyous bird, and be loaded with wounded from the Wilderness battle field, who groan and call for cold water, and wonder why they wait? There is harmony, unquestionably, between the noisy happiness of the songsters of the air and the establishment of Freedom upon the destruction of Slavery by a revolution and war. The freedom of happy civilization and the freedom of birds are not wide apart kinship—and civilization comes—save through blood, and wounds, and death.

This train of wounded is heavy with mud—the mud and harness are hid with mud. It has come twelve miles over such roads as war alone makes. In places the larger wagons had to be piled out of the deep holes with trimmed trees. The delays of the entire train from this cause were frequent and long. The depth of these holes, and the instinct and habit of the lead and middle team of mules to trot away from a wagon in a sudden descent, in order to escape the whiffles, inflicted upon the unfortunate wounded, blows and jars excruciatingly torturing and that wasted their remaining vitality. Over every rod of the way, and in the best two horse spring ambulances, a jarring motion was communicated by the absence of half the plank on the plank side of the road, and the ruts and holes cut into the side during a week's rain by the transportation machinery of an army of a hundred thousand men. On such a highway, and in such a manner, did these poor fellows, who stretched their hands out of these ambulances and army wagons for tin-cupfuls of water, painfully travel—some with arms off at the shoulder, some with legs off above the knee, some absolutely shot through the leg or the arm or the breast, some with the horrible wounds of the face, even to the loss of the jaw and the destruction of speech—all presenting in the aggregate every possible variety of gun-shot wound, and all the victims of Slavery.

There were in Fredericksburg last night (Saturday) 6,000 wounded soldiers in hospital. How many, slightly wounded, were living—substantially lives of stragglers, and nursing their own hearts, not even the Provost Marshal can present tell. There were shipped from Belle Plain to Washington up to yesterday 7,723. I am told that the six thousand and ten horses—where are they?

Where are they not? Turning from an inspection of the strange effect of a shell in the brick masonry of a dwelling in a neighboring street, I stepped in my walk upon the litter of a lawyer's office, Old writs of the Virginia Court of chancery, writs of fieri facias, bills of cost everything incidental to the old practice of an aged common law and equity lawyer, covered the brick pavement. I turned curiously to look into the den whence this ejectment had been made. Six soldiers lay in it, each with a leg off above the knee, each bedded only on a blanket, all pale, none murmuring, none shrinking from the destiny of war. These were veterans, and as they were cured for, and their misfortunes and courage made them snared from curiosity, I passed with a reverential bow of the head, and looked into the open doors of the next building with the guildd sign of a merchant over it—an abandoned and empty store (?) abandoned but not empty. Both the long counters were covered with wounded soldiers—and through the wide intervening space where women in the halcyon days of peace and slavery, had turned over silks and found fault with lace, our warriors from the Wilderness lay thick—and not a murmur came from one of them.

The next building likewise was an abandoned store, and its counters were hospitals for our braves. And there was resignation and an acceptance of the fate of war in their faces as they looked up at the clouds and not at the ground. The long counters were covered with wounded soldiers—and through the wide intervening space where women in the halcyon days of peace and slavery, had turned over silks and found fault with lace, our warriors from the Wilderness lay thick—and not a murmur came from one of them.

The music of a cavalry band floats in the evening air from the heart of the city. Is it the sublime and sustaining "Old Hundred"? When I reached the place, a crowd of bandaged soldiers surrounded the players, they sat upon the steps of a church in the heart of the city. The large public buildings occupied the other three corners. Each was a hospital. The band next played a waltz, and upon every corner of its voluptuously swelling waves of concord, appeared the inexorable stretcher, black with the blood of its repeated freights. Wounded men bore through the crowd some desperately wounded—bore them somewhere. And men of the Sanitary Commission, and of the Christian Commission, followed them. All hour to those organizations! The nation owes them an eternal debt of gratitude. I am a witness to testify that for four days a considerable portion of this army of injured soldiers would have starved and gone without succor or care, if it had not been for the resources and devotion of those organizations.

But slavery the cause of all these woes? Friends of the wounded in Fredericksburg from the battles of the Wilderness? Friends and relatives of the soldiers of Grant's army beyond the Wilderness, let us all join hands and swear upon our country's altar that we will never cease this war until African slavery in the United States is dead forever and forever buried!

ESTABLISHED IN 1810.—The Old Hartford of home again.—The list of agents of the Hartford Companies now complete.—The undersigned having been appointed Agent of the above sterling old company for Jamestown and vicinity, is prepared to issue policies at as low rates as the nature of the risk will admit.

looked to my imperfect sight in the distance as heaps of grain bags. Close at hand they were wounded soldiers, covered with gray blankets. Here was a new hospital. Its last floor was almost paved with the wounded. A stream of rain was coming on, and the tedious nurses of the Christian and Sanitary Commissions came out of the building to gather into it the helpless humanity lying under blankets, or sitting up, preferring wet to painful motion. It was my privilege to assist in this labor. Before being finished, the capacity of the building was overfilled. For shelter against the coming down-pour of water, I went a considerable way to an abandoned meal-drying mill, open on all sides to the second story, by the stripping off for solidly use of the weather-boarding. Past this were carried on hospital stretchers the excess of the wounded over the capacity of the grain warehouses—entirely wounded, for their faces and entire figures were blanketed. And the bearers made many journeys, and hurried. And so there was another hospital in a house in the very north-westernmost suburb of the city. The rain began to fall. From somewhere suddenly appeared upon the floor of the open mill, a man carrying a blanket marked U. S. one of whose feet was bound up in bloody cloths. Soon came in a negro with knapsack on his back and unsling it, and laid down his head upon it in a corner, and went to sleep. His arm was bandaged. A drummer boy with his drum [the whole drum corps almost was sent in from the front to act as nurses] sprung into the building, glanced curiously at the bandaged foot, made a funny face at the negro, then looked at the furious shower and then whistled. He was whistling in a temporary hospital.

Before the storm had entirely ceased, a handsome young girl, in a short blue skirt and white trousers, with great freedom and vigor in her step and the swing of her arm, went by the ruined mill carrying a tin pail, evidently full. An orderly followed her with leaves in his arm. They turned a corner and disappeared. Bread and coffee had gone to another hospital. A distant "Ye—a-a-up!" behind me and a crack of a whip made me turn. A negro teamster was jerking the single rein of his lead mules to make them quit the road and go over a little grass common. He drew an army wagon filled with wounded. Another followed, and another—then an open wagon loaded with Rebels, all bandaged, then three more covered six-mule wagons. All disappeared beyond the grass common, and went to some hospital.

"Hospitals everywhere!" Richest two words in human language to express human misery. The Slavery gave occasion for their employment in Fredericksburg. You choose men of the North who bleed, laugh, suffer, and die here, you bleed, laugh, suffer, and die under the talons of Slavery.

In a gunnery warehouse a magnificent veteran, leaning against the wall with his blouse on to protect him from the cold of the bricks, whose left sleeve and shoulder were thrown back so as to relieve the stump of his amputated arm from their weight, beckoned me to him. "I have not ate, Sir, for three days. When will you be served to us?" I saw across the street to the Sanitary Commission rooms, and repeated the pitiable statement, and asked for food. "Our supplies are wholly exhausted," said the attendant. "We have literally nothing here save empty boxes."

Where the wounded in the city got their food that night, God only knows. Where bandages were got to dress their wounds, I do not know. I do not know. I do know that in the great Baptist Church hospital, under Frank H. Hamilton's care, there was nothing—literally nothing. And if a surgeon as distinguished as he, with a title won by years of professional service in the field to the highest position of influence; with his experience in getting things as a Corps Medical Director—it was his destitute it is fair to presume that every hospital here was destitute.

I know that he was without bandages, lint, medicines, and stimulants, and I saw one of his nurses, a young and beautiful girl from New Hampshire, go to more than one seerish house and beg in vain for old sheets and pillow-cases; and I heard her express a purpose to go to the Military Governor of Fredericksburg, and beg him to order a raid upon the shelves and closets of the she-dragnons left on guard here by their fugitive rebel husbands. Of the destitution of utensils and conveniences for the care of helplessly sick in these hospitals, it is unnecessary to speak. Every imagination will supply for itself the details of nameless horror and suffering that ensued upon this want.

What is all this? Shall it be baptized the inevitable carnage of war, and let it slide into the unremembered? I have done more than my share of warfare upon official persons and have grown weary. If I were not weary of strife I would draw for one of those pens whose strokes draw blood and empty offices, and so help me God! I would never let up upon the officials responsible for the criminal want of preparation at Fredericksburg for the wounded from Grant's battles in the Wilderness, until they were out of place forever and for ever under the feet of the vengeful friends and relatives of this army of neglected sufferers.

The music of a cavalry band floats in the evening air from the heart of the city. Is it the sublime and sustaining "Old Hundred"? When I reached the place, a crowd of bandaged soldiers surrounded the players, they sat upon the steps of a church in the heart of the city. The large public buildings occupied the other three corners. Each was a hospital. The band next played a waltz, and upon every corner of its voluptuously swelling waves of concord, appeared the inexorable stretcher, black with the blood of its repeated freights. Wounded men bore through the crowd some desperately wounded—bore them somewhere. And men of the Sanitary Commission, and of the Christian Commission, followed them. All hour to those organizations! The nation owes them an eternal debt of gratitude. I am a witness to testify that for four days a considerable portion of this army of injured soldiers would have starved and gone without succor or care, if it had not been for the resources and devotion of those organizations.

But slavery the cause of all these woes? Friends of the wounded in Fredericksburg from the battles of the Wilderness? Friends and relatives of the soldiers of Grant's army beyond the Wilderness, let us all join hands and swear upon our country's altar that we will never cease this war until African slavery in the United States is dead forever and forever buried!

NATIVITY. WINES.—Sacred Nativities in allusions to wine, and there are thirteen distinct Hebrew terms used in the Bible to distinguish varieties of different kinds, condition and ages, it is evident that the "ancient people" were no less particular in the matter of "brands" than are the people of the present day. The Greek and Romans had two hundred varieties, of which the "Falernian" was the choicest; and the products of particular vineyards were as highly esteemed in Athens and Rome, as the Claret and Metternich wines now are in London and Paris. The wines of antiquity were often villainously adulterated. The art of "doctoring" the juice of the grape is so far from being a modern invention that it dates back to the siege of Troy. Helen, the fair and frail, is said to have learned the trick in Egypt, and to have practised it for the sake of increasing the exhilarating properties of the wine she gave to the defenders of the city after a hard battle with the Greeks.

The safest and best of all exhilarants is good wine. Many physicians and matrons suppose we must have foreign wine. There is one hundred times the quantity of wines exported from France, Spain and Germany, than can be manufactured there from the quantity of grapes. There is but one safeguard, and that is to use our pure native wines. Imported wines now pay a heavy duty, and a bottle of real Port or Sherry can only be obtained at a high price. There is no duty or tax on native wines—therefore, in the name of purity and economy, let us have our own native wines.

Messrs. Bennett Pictors & Co., of Chicago, always have an assorted stock of fine imported wines in U. S. bonded warehouses, from the most reliable houses of France, Spain and Germany, also brandies, gins, rums, &c.; and have for the past three years been making extensive preparations for the manufacture of home-made wines. They have the most extensive arrangements with fruit, growers, and in the proper season they gather strawberries, cherries, peaches, blackberries, raspberries, &c., to an enormous amount. Their strawberry, cherry, blackberry, raspberry and muscat wine far excel many of the imported wines, both in purity and exhilarating effects. Many of these home-made wines are being largely adulterated, and many a bottle of cherry juice is sold, which never had a drop of cherry juice in it. Buy none but those with the unmistakable label of Bennett Pictors & Co. These gentlemen are men of high respectability, and guarantee every article from their house, pure and unadulterated.

INSURE WITH THE PHENIX INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—Our mode of adjusting losses. Feeling it a special duty to the Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., I take great pleasure in expressing my thankfulness for the promptness and liberality they have exhibited in honorably adjusting and paying my claim, for loss sustained by the total destruction of my brick store building and stock of merchandise contained therein in Harrodsburg Ky., a few days since, and upon which I had an insurance in the PHENIX.

I am to-day in receipt of the amount of my claim $9,500 sixty days before the same was due, according to the terms of the policy, which is satisfactory evidence in my mind that the PHENIX is the Company to do business with.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Old Iron Brigade.—In describing the de-perate battle of Friday, in the Wilderness, where Gen. Wadsworth was killed, the New York Herald's correspondent says: "Gen. Wadsworth's division had had hard work before it, and it fought gallantly, with a few exceptions, did it set at it. Through a dense thicket the column had to pass its way forward. The enemy lay behind earthworks, and as the column came by, rose and poured a terrible volley into it. The shock started Col. Stone's brigade, causing them to make a precipitate retreat. The rest of the division, however, marched unflinchingly on, and Col. Stone soon rallied his men and joined in the advance. Gen. Cutler's Wisconsin troops, known as the 'Iron Brigade,' as the Old Iron Brigade, were particularly brave and cool, as they always have been."
